Venusaur

It's been a while since I posted a pattern and since I'm on summer break I've been getting back into crocheting again. As usual a certain somebody in my life had a request. For a long time I avoided filling this request, but finally gave in. He's not 6' 7" but this little venusaur is just as awesome in Beau's opinion. He measures 7 inches tall and took about 4-5 hours to finish.

Venusaur! Vine Whip!!!
(it's super effective)
